

Name: _____

Book: _____

Date: _____

Pages: _____

Literature Discussion Sheet for Reciprocal Teaching – Nonfiction

Predict

Remember: Your prediction should be specific and have proof from the book!!

I predict that I will learn _____ because _____

After reading:

- I confirmed my prediction while reading after reading.
- I rejected my prediction. while reading after reading.
 - Here's why I rejected my prediction (Or, my new prediction based on what I read):

Question

Here are "quiz" questions I can ask my group.

Remember: You should create your question using the text and you should know the answer to your question. Your group should need proof from the text in order to answer the question you wrote.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Clarify

Meaning:

_____ is a difficult word because I don't know what it means. So I...

- Checked the parts of the word that I know
- Read on to find clues.
- Reread to find clues.
- Tried another word.
- Talked to my group
- Looked it up

Pronunciation:

_____ is a difficult word because I don't know how to pronounce it. So I...

- Sounded out the word.
- Broke the word into chunks.
- Thought of a word that looks like this
- I talked to my group
- Looked up the pronunciation in a dictionary or online

Understanding what's going on:

Page # _____ has a confusing part. I don't understand...

_____. So I...

- Reread
- Read on
- Thought about what I know
- Talked to my group

Here's what I learned from clarifying today:

Summarize

Here is a short summary about today's reading. This should include about 5 key points that the author wanted you to learn. (It should NOT include first, next, then, and finally.)
