

Lon Po Po

Translated and Illustrated by Ed Young

Directions: After reading, find a quote from the text that provides evidence for or against the statement. Write it in the appropriate box.

Evidence For	Statement	Evidence Against
	Mother tells her children they may enjoy the outdoors at night while she is away.
	Shang did not believe that her grandmother was really at their door.

Evidence For	Statement	Evidence Against
	The first thing Shang noticed when they all climbed into bed were Grandmother's sharp claws.
	Shang is very smart and clever.
	The girls really wanted "PoPo" to get up the tree.

Evidence For	Statement	Evidence Against
	One theme of the story is that you should listen to your parents and be careful of strangers.
	Make up a statement and write it here. Have another group find evidence FOR or evidence AGAINST your statement. (Make it tricky!)
