

ARTS INTEGRATION RESOURCES

music for the classroom

Need some music to listen to in your classroom? Playing music in the background can be beneficial for creativity, collaboration and communication. Here's some suggestions to use for your next project!

MUSICIANS AND GROUPS

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Simple Three | <input type="checkbox"/> Enya |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Piano Guys | <input type="checkbox"/> 2Cellos |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Bobby McFerrin | <input type="checkbox"/> KOOP |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Putumayo | <input type="checkbox"/> Acoustic Alchemy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Atmospheric | <input type="checkbox"/> Lindsey Sterling |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Bach and Mozart | <input type="checkbox"/> Jim Brickman |

PANDORA STATION PLAYLISTS

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Denmark | <input type="checkbox"/> Focus |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Classical | <input type="checkbox"/> Relaxation Radio |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Hawaiian | <input type="checkbox"/> Ambient Instrumental |
| <input type="checkbox"/> El Ten Eleven | <input type="checkbox"/> Film Scores Radio |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Spa | <input type="checkbox"/> Nature Sounds |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Concentration | <input type="checkbox"/> New Age Instrumental |